

End of the Game

I would become insane
Proud to play the game, that never ends
Step by step they made
We dont believe what they create
The war inside meets hate
It all takes place when they face fate

I want become the game
Want receive some fame, that never stops
Soul by soul they take
Can't fall a sleep when they awake
The Devil inside feeds pain
Come lead me out

When they call my name
The end of the game
Chanting my name
Here comes the pain

I want to live that dream
Want to take a bath, inside the cream
Piece by piece they found
There is no place no zero ground
Mistakes signed my life
Pouring down, down on my face

I want to see all down
Right below my feet, you on the ground
Lie by lie they've made, the will receive what they create
This war inside my head
It all breaks out

When they call my name
The end of the game
Chanting my name
Here comes the pain

Spell my name
Calling my name
Sell my name
Falling my fame
Spell my name
Calling my name
Sell my name
Falling my fame

When they call my name
The end of the game
Chanting my name
Here comes the pain
