

Two words in stone

This sadness and pain
In the dark once again
Whish to wake her up
And then I see her – blood

I'm only old but not insane
I don't want to feel such pain again
In this cruel world today
And now she has to go away

Two words in stone
Written by herself alone
Two words in stone
Written by herself alone

Confused I left this place
Sadness stands written all over my face
She cut`s her atery by knife
And see last pictures of – life

I'm only old but not insane
I don't want to feel such pain again
In this cruel world today
And now she has to go away

Two words in stone
Written by herself alone
Two words in stone
Written by herself alone

This two words in stone
Written by herself alone

Two words in stone
Written by herself alone
Two words in stone
Written by herself alone
